Course Description:

For students interested in careers in law enforcement, adult or juvenile corrections, law, private or industrial security, counseling, or criminology, and persons interested in the functioning of the U.S. criminal justice system. This course examines the criminal justice system, police, courts, corrections, and related government functions and agencies. Additionally, this course identifies and explores problems, issues, and trends in criminal justice. Students will be exposed to a variety of teaching methods, including lecture, videos, guest lecturers and assigned text study. This course is required for the associate's degree in Criminal Justice and prepares students and for bachelor's degree work.

Text:

"Introduction to Criminal Justice," Fourteenth Edition by Larry J. Siegel and John L. Worrall. (ISBN 978-1-285-06901-2).

Course Goals and Objectives:

Students are expected and encouraged to comment on and advocate their personal views on the assigned text and lectures as they relate to the criminal justice system. This introductory course will provide the student with a substantial knowledge of criminal justice agencies as well as policy and procedures which are utilized by those agencies. This course will enhance the student's view to a global perspective and relationship to crime and the criminal justice system's attempt to meet challenges worldwide.

By the end of this course, students will be able to

- Elaborate on the three (3) main components of the Criminal Justice System.
- Identify Criminal Justice Agencies, and understand their roles.
- Explain the Criminal Justice Process.
- Discuss the everyday challenges faced by the Criminal Justice System.
- Explain the purposes and changing dynamics of punishment.
- Identify and explain the various crime classifications.
- Describe the Constitutional Amendments that are important to criminal law and how each affects the criminal justice process.

Expectations:

Classroom attendance and participation are a mandatory part of course instruction. Students are expected to read ahead of time and prepare to be called on to comment on related issues. All assignments are to be completed on a timely basis and in a thorough manner. Students shall be expected to bring their textbook to class. Note taking and of all relevant in class discussion is detrimental to the student's success as there will be points that either may or may not be adequately covered, or amendments to a 'related area' in the textbook. The class discussions will not cover all of the text material. However, the student is still responsible for all assigned reading and testing purposes, regardless of whether or not the material was discussed in class. The instructor may change the syllabus as needed in order to enhance the learning experience.

Academic Integrity:

No form of academic dishonesty will be tolerated. Students are encouraged to work together for purposes of studying for upcoming exams, and in related coursework. Avoid cheating in all forms! If a student is caught cheating, the instructor will be forced to report academic dishonesty to Dixie State University (Dean of Students). Your name will be placed upon the academic database, and you will receive a '0' on the assignment/test. Any such academic dishonesty will subsequently be reported to any college institution to which you may apply, and can ultimately affect your ability to attend college.

Student's with Disabilities:

Proper documentation of a disability is required in order to receive services or accommodations. Any student who is eligible for requesting reasonable academic accommodations due to a disability must provide a letter of accommodation to their professor from the Disability Resource Center within the first week of the course. Please take the initiative to provide the aforesaid documentation to your Professor for signature, and return it to the Disability Resource Center located at the North-East corner of the North Plaza Building on the corner of Tabernacle and 1000 East-Entrance is located on the East side of the building right next to the testing center. The phone number is 435.652.7696. The Disability Resource Center is located beneath the Financial Aid Office in the Career & Financial Aid (CFA) building, or you may call for an appointment and further information regarding the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) at 652-7880.

Testing Center

All tests w/exception to the final examination will be given at the testing center. The testing center is located at the North-East corner of the North Plaza Building on the corner of Tabernacle and 1000 East-Entrance is located on the East side of the building. The phone number is 435.652.7696.

Library Services

The Criminal Justice liaison is John Burns. If you need assistance with locating resources or other assistance you may contact him at 879-4712.

Attendance

Attendance will be taken each week. Students who have 100% attendance will have the opportunity to drop their lowest test score on record. Students who pre-arrange absences, or leave class early will not be permitted to exercise this option. In the event of an emergency an absence may be excused if permitted by the CJ Department Chair. Student Athletes must provide proper documentation in order to get any absences approved.
