FINAL EXAM

The final exam will be held in class on April 30th. It will consist of multiple choice, true/false and Possibly essay questions. You will need scantron and a blue book, please bring your own scantron sheet and blue book. The final examination will be comprehensive covering materials throughout the term.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATIONS:

The student will be responsible for all materials assigned in the book through the date of the examination, lectures, guest lecturer's presentations, any materials distributed in class and/or placed on reserve, as well as the content of any video or other multi-media presentation in class. If you fail to attend a class session please contact a fellow student or the instructor to ascertain what material may have been missed.

RESEARCH PAPER

Students will write a ten page, double spaced research paper on a particular aspect or case in the criminal justice system. Preferably, the subject matter will address a topic, concept or case we have discussed in class over the course of the semester. The paper must have no fewer than five sources, and comport with standard university level writing procedures, formats and guidelines.

CLASS PARTICIPATION

Students are expected to attend classes, be prepared (have read the assigned materials), and participate in class discussions. Student participation grades will be based not only on attendance and quantity of participation but on quality of participation. Quizzes may be given at any time and will be included within your class participation grade.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

No form of academic dishonesty will be tolerated. On examinations no "cheating" will be tolerated. Cheating includes, but is not limited to, copying another student's answers, consulting "crib sheets", consulting with another student or any other act or attempted act seeking to gain unfair advantage. All work submitted must be the student's own work.

Plagiarism (the unattributed inclusion of another's work as the student's own), in whole or in part, will likewise not be tolerated. Any academic dishonesty will result in the student receiving a failing grade for the course.

IMPORTANT NOTES:

1. Any person missing a Examination or Quiz will receive an "F", numerically a zero on that Quiz or Examination. Only under the most extraordinary of circumstances will a make-up examination or quiz be given for a student who was absent. Should such an extraordinary circumstance arise, contact the instructor as soon as possible to explain the reason for you absence. Proof of the underlying cause may be required. It will be at the instructor's sole discretion as to whether to allow a make-up exam.
2. This class involves the study of crime and criminal law. The subject matter and or materials presented may be graphic on occasion and disturbing to some. If at any time you are so affected and wish to leave class for that reason please feel free to do so.
3. I will on occasion refer to actual cases in which I have been involved. If you, a family member, or friend were also involved in a case discussed, be it as a victim, defendant, or otherwise, please let me know. Certainly no offense or desire to embarrass is intended.

DISABILITIES

If you are a student with a medical, psychological, or learning disability and would like accommodations, contact the Disability Resource Center (652-7516) in the Student Services Center. The Disability Resource Center will determine the eligibility of a student requesting special services and determine the appropriate accommodations related to their disability.

REGULATIONS

1. Adding the Class: You must register for this class by August 23rd if you wish to do so without instructor approval. Thereafter, instructor signature is required to add the class. Beginning September 7th there is a $50 late registration/payment fee assessed. That last day to add classes is September 17th.
2. Withdrawing from Class: You must withdraw by September 13th if you want a refund and/or if you wish to avoid a W grade. Thereafter, you may withdraw from or choose to audit a class until October 18th, but will receive no refund or adjustment. The last day for complete withdrawal from school is November 12th.
3. Other Important Dates: The semester officially begins on Monday, August 23rd, and ends on Friday

December 10th. Final exam week begins on Monday December 13, and ends on Friday, December 17th.

4. Written Work: All written work must be typewritten or word processed, double spaced, and on one side only of 8.5 x 11 inch plain white paper. Every page of each assignment must bear your name, a page number (except the first page), and the assignment title. Do NOT bind your papers in any way, other than to staple pages together. Place your stapled paper into a file folder with your name on the tab and submit the folder to your instructor. Please remove any previously graded papers from the folder.
5. Timeliness of Papers: Papers are due immediately at the beginning of class on the day that they are due. If your paper is turned in after this time, it will be considered late. There is a one-grade deduction for late papers, and an addition grade deduction for each week thereafter that it is late.
6. Grading of Papers: Written assignments will be graded against professional business standards rather than against the performance of other students in the class. A paper deemed NOT to meet professional standards will be graded at a "D" or below level. A paper which meets professional standards with some revision will be graded at a "C" level. Better quality papers, requiring less editing and demonstrating above average critical analysis will receive higher grades. Mechanical correctness is required, and one point will be subtracted for each spelling, grammatical, and/or usage error. Factual correctness is also required, and major errors in fact will be penalized significantly.
7. Exams and Chapter Quizzes: Exams and chapter quizzes must be taken in class on the day they are administered. No make-up quizzes or exams will be given. For this reason, attendance in class on those dates is essential to your success. Carefully reading your assignments is important since you may be quizzed on any material assigned and/or discussed prior to that date. The final exam will not be comprehensive.
8. Absences Related to College Functions: In accordance with Dixie State's policy, students may be excused from class for legitimate college functions such as athletics and student activities leadership activities. However, any work and/or quizzes or exams that may take place during the student's absence must be completed before the student leaves for the required activity. In no case can quizzes or exams be taken late, and written assignments turned in after the due date will be considered late (see #2 and #4 above).
9. Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty in any form is not tolerated at Dixie State College, including but not limited to plagiarism on written assignments, submitting other person's work as one's own, and cheating on exams or quizzes. Teachers at Dixie State College may discipline students proven guilty of academic dishonesty by: (1) giving a failing grade on the specific assignment where dishonesty occurred, (2) failing the student in the entire course, (3) Immediately dismissing and removing the student from the course, and/or (4) Referring the student to Student Affairs, a committee which may reprimand, place on probation, suspend, and/or expel the student. (See DSC Policy 34.1.1-4). In addition, the Communication department may consider dropping such students from its academic degree program.
10. Disabilities Statement: If you are a student with a medical, psychological or a learning difference and requesting reasonable academic accommodations due to this disability, you must provide an official request of accommodation to your professor(s) from the Disability Resource Center within the first two weeks of the beginning of classes. Students are to contact the center on the main campus to follow through with, and receive assistance in the documentation process to determine the appropriate accommodations related to their disability. You may call (435) 652-7516 for an appointment and further information regarding the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 per Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The office is located in the Student Services Center, Room #201 of the Edith Whitehead Building.
