Syllabus Spring 2010

Department Objective

Criminal Justice is the application of law, social and natural sciences to the social phenomenon of crime and delinquency. The discipline addresses definitions, causation, prevention, legal processes and treatment of offenders. Criminal justice courses at Dixie State College provide a foundation for continued study toward a bachelor degree while preparing the student for employment in law enforcement, courts or corrections.

Course Description

This course is for students interested in a career in law enforcement, adult or juvenile corrections, private or industrial security, law, criminology, school counseling or teaching. It examines the origin, philosophy and development of the juvenile justice system, juvenile court, relationship of various segments of the juvenile justice system and also examines theories of juvenile criminality and trends in treatment and provides a foundation for work with juveniles. Through the use of lectures, videos, guest lecturers and assigned text study it helps develop a foundation for a career in Juvenile Justice.

Course Goal and Objectives

The goal of this course is to introduce students to today's juvenile justice. In order to accomplish this task the following issues will be examined:

- A brief overview of juvenile justice history.
- Why are juveniles committing so many crimes?
- What can be done to prevent this growing problem?
- How can rehabilitation and punishment be balanced?
- What is the future of the juvenile justice system?

Expectations

Preparation: Class lectures and discussions will, for the most part, follow the reading schedule provided. Students are expected to complete each week's reading assignment prior to coming to class. Although class discussions will not always cover all the material in the reading assignment, you will be expected to know the material for quiz and testing purposes.

Class discussion is highly encouraged. You may be given extra credit points for substantial participation in weekly class discussions, at the instructor's discretion. Current events will be discussed as they arise. Students are expected to keep up-to-date on local, regional, and national events related to corrections law.

Attendance: Students are expected to attend classes weekly. Attendance will be excused for special or exceptional circumstances, and only with prior approval from the instructor. Students are also expected to come to class on time. Unexcused absences and excessive tardiness may affect your grade.

Academic Integrity: Members of the law enforcement community are expected to display high levels of integrity. As students in the criminal justice program, you are expected to act on this same level of integrity. The Dixie State College policy on cheating is as follows:

Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated at Dixie State College, including but not limited to plagiarism on written assignments, submitting other person's work as one's own, and cheating on exams or quizzes. Teachers at Dixie State College may discipline students proven guilty of academic dishonesty by:

- Giving a failing grade on the specific assignment where dishonesty occurred,
- Failing the student in the entire course,
- Immediately dismissing and removing the student from the course, and/or
- Referring the student to Student Affairs, a committee which may reprimand, place on probation, suspend, and/or expel the student.

Disruptive Behavior Policy: Students are expected to act in a manner that ensures a good learning climate. Students displaying disruptive behavior may be dismissed and removed from individual class activities. If a student's behavior continues to disrupt class activities, the student may be dismissed and removed from the course.

Student Appeals: Students who believe themselves wrongfully disciplined for academic dishonesty or disruptive behavior may appeal those disciplinary actions through the standard grievance procedure.

Exams: There will be a total of two exams. Exams will consist of short answer, multiple choice, and true/false questions. Exam questions will be drawn from reading material, lectures, presentations, and class discussions. Each exam will be worth 100 points. Make-up exams have the same limitations and requirements as the attendance policy stated above.

Quizzes: There will be one quiz per chapter for a total of 12 quizzes. Each quiz is worth 10 points. The lowest two quiz grades will be dropped for a total of 100 points possible from quizzes.

Paper and Class Presentation: Each student will be expected to write a three to five page paper on an issue faced by today's juvenile justice system. The paper should be double spaced, 12 pt courier font with 1 inch margins. On the due date of the paper, each student will give a 5 – 10 minute presentation to the class discussing the findings of his/her paper. The paper is worth 80 points and the presentation is worth 20 points for a total of 100 points, constituting the final 25% of the course grade. The paper and presentation will be due on April 21, 2010. Papers turned in late will automatically be docked 20 points.

Grading:

Midterm Exam	100 points
