Instructor: Dannelle Larsen-Rife, Ph.D.

Office: 219 McDonald Ctr. Phone: (435)652-7823

e-mail: dlarsenrife@dixie.edu

Office Hours: MWF 1:00–2:00 pm, T 3:30–4:30 pm,
TR 12:00-1:00 pm

Lecture: Monday, Wednesday and Friday 11:00 a.m. to 11:50 a.m. Room: 206 McDonald Ctr.

Course Description: For students in all disciplines who are interested in the fundamental scientific principles of behavior. The student will study learning, motivation, emotion, personality, mental disorders, treatment alternatives and other related subjects as part of the course. Critical thinking will be explored in examining these aspects of behavior. Students will have frequent examinations and quizzes as part of the course requirements.

This course satisfies general education requirements in the social sciences area. 3 lecture hours per week.

Prerequisites: None

Required Text: Baron, R. A. & Kalsher, M. J. (2008). Psychology: From Science to Practice (2nd Edition). Boston: MA. Allyn and Bacon. ISBN: 0-205-51618-1 Available at the Dixie State College bookstore.

Philosophy/Expectations: This course will operate on the philosophy that active engagement with material fosters quality learning. There will be ample opportunity for in-class discussion, both in small groups and with the entire class. Students are expected to read assigned text prior to class and be prepared to participate in class to maximize the learning experience. Throughout your involvement in the course you should be testing what you read about specific issues in the textbook and hear in the lectures with your own observations of human behavior in various contexts. The provided course calendar indicates when topics will be covered; however, please allow for some flexibility in the schedule.

There is no attendance policy for this course, other than for administrative purposes. However, absences may result in lost learning opportunities, including extra credit opportunities.

Social Science Program Objectives:

As an outcome of taking courses in the Social Science program, students shall:

1. Demonstrate the ability to examine human behaviors in a structured and organized way as a means of understanding the human condition. Measured by examination and/or oral and written reports.
2. Demonstrate the ability to recognize the ideas, people and events that are generally thought to be important by social scientists. Measured by examination and/or oral or written reports.
3. Develop a perceptual frame of reference based on social scientific knowledge. Measured by the presence of an attitudinal frame of reference which would be expressed in written or oral activities.

Fall 2009

4. Exhibit concepts of critical thinking and scientific methodology in examining human behavior. Measured by the presence of an attitudinal frame of reference which would be displayed in written or oral activities.

Course Objectives & Outcomes: The primary objective of this course is to provide an overview of the major fields of psychology and its methodology. By the end of this course, students should be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of the major fields of psychology.
2. Demonstrate knowledge of major theorists in psychology and their theories.
3. Demonstrate knowledge of psychological research methodology.
4. Demonstrate knowledge of major issues and concepts in psychology.
5. Demonstrate knowledge of empirical findings in psychology.

Examinations: There will be 4 midterms and one final examination. No early or make-up exams will be permitted for any of the exams.

The midterms will consist of multiple choice, true/false and matching items from the material presented prior to the examination. Midterms will be administered in the Testing Center (you will be required to present your student ID to take the exam) between the hours of 9:00 am and 9:00 pm. Please see the Testing Center Website for further information. Your lowest midterm grade will be dropped from the calculation of your final grade.

Midterm 1: September 11, 2009	100 points
Midterm 2: October 9, 2009	100 points
Midterm 3: November 6, 2009	100 points
Midterm 4: December 4, 2009	100 points

The final exam will be cumulative, covering all of the material presented in the course (text and all lectures) and will also include multiple choice, true/false and matching items. The final exam cannot be dropped.

Final: December 18, 2009 10:00 am – 12:00 pm	100 points
--	------------

Grading: The midterms and final examination are each worth one-quarter of your total grade (400 points total). You may receive up to 25 extra credit points (for a maximum total of 400 points for the course) for taking advantage of extra credit opportunities presented randomly during the course.

Academic Honesty: As stated in the DSC Student Handbook; “Academic dishonesty in any form will not be tolerated at Dixie State College (Academic Discipline Policy, 3.34)” including cheating, and plagiarism. These acts of academic dishonesty are strictly prohibited.

Disruptive Behavior Policy: If your conduct in class affects the learning atmosphere of the class, the instructor reserves the right to drop you from the class. This will happen using the following procedure:

- Verbal warning that your behavior is negatively affecting the class
- Written warning that you are negatively affecting the class
- Removal from the class. The instructor will inform the student in writing of this, along with contact information for a supervisor of the instructor so the student can appeal if desired.

Policy for Absences Related to College Functions: For students, such as student athletes, who travel as official representatives of the college, absences due to college functions will not negatively affect the student’s grade. The student is required to provide the instructor with a schedule of days that will be missed, will be required to negotiate any scheduled work ahead of time with the instructor.
